

DISTRICT PROGRAMS

INTAKE- This is a one time group designed for persons that are new to Probation and Parole. It's purpose is to assist people in learning what is expected of them and what they can expect from us while on supervision.

FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT- This program provides information about planning for expenses. It focuses on developing a budget and living on your income.

PRISON TOUR- This program is designed primarily for young offenders at high risk for incarceration. Prison Inmates facilitate the program.

WOMEN'S GROUP- This group addresses issues regarding domestic violence. The participants can feel comfortable to express feelings and focus on their needs. The group provides awareness of resources and options for participants to explore and consider.

VICTIM IMPACT CLASSES- These classes were developed to have clients understand how their criminal behavior impacts the immediate victims along with all of the extended victims. There are group activities to show the many effects incurred to victims within the community.

INTERVENTION FEES- All clients under supervision will pay a monthly Intervention Fee of $30.00, as required by 217.690 RSMo, for the term of their supervision. Payments are due and payable on the first day of each month. Ask your Officer for details.
